SAD THANKSGIVING 1963

This will be a somber Thanksgiving Day in the United States. Families gathered together in close affection will experience a bond of pain and sympathy with the family of the late President John F. Kennedy. The horror of the act of assassination is done. The torrent of words flowing unchecked from the news media of the nation will have covered every detail. In the final analysis, however, Mrs. Kennedy's first exclamation, "Oh, no!", expressed all of the wrenching disbelief that every American citizen experienced at the moment of realization. President Kennedy projected a personal charm and vigorous energy to the final moment. That this vital life force should be extinguished in a split second is barely comprehensible. The Presidency is the heart of the nation. Every man who holds this office is the focus of responsibility, national pride and affection. That the President should be subject to such a crime is unthinkable and yet it is a sad fact of life in a nation of 150,000,000 million people.

Mrs. Kennedy, whose gallantry on that infamous Friday and ever since shall be an inspiration to all Americans, and her children will be in the thoughts and prayers of all on this Thanksgiving Thursday.

We may thank God that we live in a nation so well designed, so stable, that the orderly Grange Deputies.

Four members of the Juvenile Grange, Donna and Carl Hubbard and Susan and Christine Bence, were voted into membership of the Subordinate Grange. Two more applications were received and will be voted on at the next meeting.

Expression of thanks was extended to Barry Denham and his committee for their work done on the float that was entered in the Veterans' Day parade and won third prize in organization floats.

Otto Kellish of the Agriculture Committee spoke on the care of chrysanthemum plants.

Mrs. Alice Marshall presented Ada Furtado a check for the first place in the State for her crocheted edgings on pillow cases. Mrs. Furtado also won in the Grange Fair and on the Pomona level.

Birthdays of Mrs. LeBaron, Mrs. Furtado and Mr. Kellish were recognized.

The lecturer's program consisted of a fine chorus from Fall River Grange who also rendered solos and duets.

Also on the program were harmonica selections by Mrs. LeBaron and Rebecca Downing; readings by William H. Winslow; a song and dance number entitled "We Are the Marion Girls" to

All visiting masters spoke briefly. The pleasant evening was climaxed with refreshments of doughnuts, coffee and cheese by the officers of the host Grange.

The next meeting, December 5th, will be Overseer's Night in charge of Otto Kellish.

SENATOR SPEAKS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Senator John Parker (R.Taunton) was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club held last Thursday afternoon in the Congregational Church parish hall.

Senator Parker illustrated his talk, Government Should be Everyone's Business, with colored slides. Senator Parker's talk started with how Massachusetts started with the landing of the Pilgrims and moved up through history to the present day. His slides showed charts of the cost of running the State Government today compared to 1910 and also how the dollar has devaluated since then.

Senator Parker said any citizen of the Commonwealth may file a bill in the State Legislature by going to his Senator or Representative, and that any citizen may attend any Committee meeting and speak for his bill.

Mrs. Leonard Burnham, legislative chairman, introduced Senator Parker and also Mrs. Parker.

Mrs. Harold Banks presided at the business meeting. Mrs. David Moore, federation secretary, gave a detailed report on the Fall meeting of the State Federation held recently.

It was voted to purchase the History of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs for the Mattapoisett Library, to donate $5.00 to the State Federation towards a literature-drama scholarship, and to donate $25.00 for a needy family at Christmas.

The American Home Group will meet at 8 P.M. December 17th at the home of Mrs. Horace Darrah, North Street. Mr. Tim Richards will be present to demonstrate the art of scrimshaw. Attendance will be limited to 20 and those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Darrah or Mrs. Harry Locke. Dessert and coffee will be served.

The Literature-Drama Group will meet Tuesday, December 10th, at 10 A.M. at the home of the co-chairman, Mrs. Charles B. Dunn, at Point Connett. A Christmas program will be held which will include a Christmas recording by Dylan Thomas. The Community Service, Mrs. David Goodenough, chairman, has been asked to head the Arthritis & Rheumatism Drive in March.

The Music Group will meet Thursday, December 12th, at the home of Mrs. Dixon Yard, North Street. Another film from the Festival of Performing Arts will be shown. The film will be Rudolf Zerkin and Budapest String Quartet.

The Legislative Committee attended a recent meeting of the Mattapoisett School Committee and will attend a meeting of the Old Rochester Regional High School Committee.

Helen Cruickshank, pianist, will present a Christmas program at the December 19th meeting. Other women's organizations in town have been invited.

A large bouquet of rust chrysanthemums, gold candles in silver holders made an attractive tea table. Mrs. Robert Crabbe and Mrs. Howard Logan poured. Mrs. Norman Roylance, hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Robert Mathieson, Mrs. Everett Eldridge, Jr., Mrs. David Goodenough, Mrs. James Callahan, Mrs. Fred Bieringer, Mrs. Rudolph Hoof, Mrs. Conrad Pasbrig and Mrs. Alden Kinney. Mrs. Crabbe arranged the table.

DON KENT PROGRAM

The Parent Teachers Club of Mattapoisett Center School presented the program, "An Evening with Don Kent", on Friday evening. The sudden shock of the day's tragedy cast its shadow over the evening which, had time permitted, would have been rescheduled. Mr. Charles Dunn, president, requested that the audience stand in the pledge of allegiance to the flag after which the assembly bowed their head for a minute of silence in honor and memory of President John F. Kennedy. Mr. Dunn introduced Don Kent of television station WBZ of Boston. Mr. Kent expressed his sorrow at the death of the President whom he had met on several occasions when the President had visited the station before he became chief executive.

Don Kent said that the subject of his program was nature concerning the four seasons of New England and that this theme might be appropriate to that most tragic day.

The color movies taken during the last year unfolded the beauty and variety of our New England. The changing seasons of New Hampshire and the magnificent backdrop of mountains set the scene of many sports activities - skiing, iceboating, skating, hiking and climbing. The pictures started with Fall and proceeded through Winter to Spring and Summer covering New Hampshire, Masscahusetts and Maine and Vermont. Don Kent and family vacationed this Summer by boat along the coast of Maine, Massachusetts to the island of Martha's Vineyard. All of the sports of the coastal areas were covered. In all, 110 differenct subjects of interest were contained in this one film. The contrasts, the activities and the changing panorama of New England were magnificently recorded. After the film, Mr. Kent talked on New England weather and answered several questions concerning the methods used to forecast it. He said that he is most fortunate in being able to make a living at his hobby which is weather, and that this occupation leaves hime time to pursue his other hobbies of the outdoors.

It was an evening of appreciation of the beauty of nature in New England.

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, NOVEMBER 19

It was a big night at the Knotty Pine Cafe with Tony Lopes chipping in a 375 triple and the team hitting a 641 single at the expense of Hartley's Garage in the Rochester Bowling League. Fred Swift hit a 335 to help the Garage salvage one point. Hiller's Garage took two points from Herbs TV Shop, with Ed Figuerido's 341 high for Hillers, and Herb Snell, tops for TV Shop with 338. Mike Renahan paced D. Mahoney & Sons with a 363, and a 2 to 1 win over the Woochoppers. Stu Law-

Carter's LAYETTE WEAR

What makes Carter's babywear so special ? Special designs for one thing. Consistently high quality and continuous improvement for another.

Carter's makes 15 styles of shirts for example. Gowns, Sleep-Play sets, "Jamakins", coveralls, and "Hiber-Nater sleeping bags have Carter comfort knit into every garment.

Gift-able, adorable and practical is the best way to sum up Carter's KIMONOS, SACQUES and SACQUE SETS.

GIFT SETS, SHEETS, BATH ITEMS & BIBS - all in soft pastels or pretty prints make shopping for showers a breeze. Like everything Carter's, all are machine washable, colorfast and never need ironing.

JUVENILE GRANGE

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held a very short business meeting Friday night, with the worthy master, Doris Fearing, presiding. With solemnity the Juniors held a period of silent prayer for our late President John F. Kennedy, and the bereaved family.

The program planned was cancelled and only the report of the Home and Community Service co-chairman, Susan Silva, was given. She reported 15 Thanksgiving cards she and her committee had made and mailed to the ill and shut-ins. Also, she reported on the progress of the afghan they are making to send to the Children's Medical Center.

Francis Kelley, Bird and Conservation chairman, urged the members to start putting bird feed and crumbs out as the birds have started coming for the winter.

It was voted to send Mr. Manuel Nunes a letter of thanks for the enjoyable hayride he gave them after their last meeting.

OLD ROCHESTER REGIONAL
JUNIOR HIGH DRAMATIC CLUB

The Old Rochester Regional Junior High School Dramatic Club presented its third play, "The Ghost of Benjamin Sweet," on Thursday, October 31. The hilarious antics of two rebel ghosts on Hallowe'en Eve amused the student body. In order of appearance, the members of the cast were: David Ellis, Michael Collyer, Philip Cusick, Susan Francis, Sally Gerrish, Nancy Prescott, Michael Charbonneau, Alan Maccarone, Merton Howes, James Gaudiello, Donna Faust, Georgette Harpin and Cynthia Cobb. The complicated working of the lights was handled by John Andrade. Assisting in props and curtains were Frank Mott and Douglas Macomber.

Last year the group presented "A Christmas Carol: and the rollicking comedy, "Beep Beep, Clang Clang, Doop". A fourth production, "The Devil and Daniel Webster," will be presented next semester.

Mrs. Constance Keavy, a member of the English Department, is the producer and director of the plays. Mrs. Keavy has adapted these popular stories into scripts that are suitable for junior high use and interest.

PLAYS AT MARION ART CENTER

The Marion Art Center's production of Edward Albee's plays, "The Zoo Story" and "The American Dream", will be presented at the Art Center Friday and Saturday, December 6th and 7th. The plays were postponed from last Friday and Saturday due to the death of President John F. Kennedy.

REPORT TO MASSACHUSETTS
WHAT'S UP IN SPACE?

How many of us realize that today there are something over 175 objects ranging from satellites to bits of metal pieces orbiting above us? I didn't until I worked on this newsletter. I think it is extremely difficult for the average nonscientific person to keep track of what we are doing in space, but the total effort is extraordinary.

Massachusetts can be proud to claim Dr. Robert Goddard of Clark University who invented and built the first liquid fuel rocket. His first rocket, launched outside of Worcester, pioneered the development of our future rocket and space satellite programs. Although the Russians launched the first artificial satellite, SPUTNIK I, in 1957, the United States has far surpassed the Soviet Union in number of space probes, orbiting satellites, and yield of scientific information.

Actually the United States has sent over 154 spacecraft into orbit since 1958. This does not include the scores of space probes not launched for orbit. Many of our spacecraft, most notably the manned MERCURY capsules, were orbitted and then recovered. At the present time we have approximately 75 military and nonmilitary spacecraft in orbit. We have launched one satellite for the Canadians. To the best of our knowledge, the Russians have orbitted some 40-odd spacecraft, about 10 of which are still going.

Twelve of our civilian satellites, plus the Canadian ALOUETTE, are still transmitting. One of these, the ARIEL, was developed by the British and launched by NASA. They are providing vast amounts of scientific and technical information in the fields of communications, meteorology, geophysics and astronomy, and lunar and planetary research, to name a few. The data from these satellites are obtained through a world-wide tracking network. All of this information relates directly to what we know and what we are trying to find out about the earth, its atmosphere, and outer space. We presently have cooperative space projects with more than 50 countries.

WORKSHOPS

Workshops for making Christmas Greens for the Women's Community Guild's Christmas Fair will be held Sunday, December 1, at 2 P.M. and on Monday, December 2, at 9:30 A.M. at the home of Dr. Helen Mitchell, Highgate, Park Street, Mattapoisett.
